City Council moved forward Oct. 12th in certifying election results Elba mayoral candidate's attorney filed a Motion to Stay the Certification of Election Results with Coffee County Circuit Court

by Linda Hodge, Editor

The Elba City Council canvassed and certified the Oct. 6th Municipal Runoff Election results during its 5:30 p.m. meeting Monday, Oct. 12th.

The municipal runoff election in Elba was for the office of mayor in which the candidates were Tom Maddox and Tim Johnson. Maddox was declared the winner by certification of the votes.

A little over 2 1/2 prior [2:53 p.m.] to last Monday's council meeting a Motion to Stay the Certification of Election Results on the Elba Mayoral Candidacy was filed electronically with the Circuit Court of Coffee County, Alabama [Amy L. Reeves, Clerk]. The motion was filed by attorney Michael Jackson on behalf of Timothy Johnson.

According to the motion, it was filed because "evidence requesting this stay has been provided to three separate state offices, Alabama Attorney General [Sept. 28, 2020], Alabama Ethics Commission [Oct. 7, 2020], and the Alabama Secretary of State [Oct. 7,

The motion further stated, "due to the nature of the evidence, we believe it to be exculpatory as it consists of multiple criminal acts, including, but not limited to, the following: bribery, conspiracy, trading in public offices, and interfering with the free election franchise."

The motion noted "time is of the essence" for its filing due to the certification of election results being scheduled for the council meeting that night [Oct. 12th]. The motion also stated the purpose of its filing was to stay the certification of election results until the initial review of the evidence could be done by the state offices.

In accordance with Section 11-46-46 of the Alabama Code, Elba City Clerk Sally Bane said the election results for the Oct. 6th Runoff Election were canvassed and certified at the regularly scheduled council meeting of the Elba City Council on Oct. 12, 2020.

On Thursday afternoon, Oct. 15, a Dothan, Alabama television news source initially reported that Johnson had sued the City of Elba in filing the motion to stay the certification of election results. Johnson quickly addressed that story [Thursday evening] on the "Tim Johnson for Mayor of Elba, Alabama" Facebook page.

"I have asked for this story to be corrected," Johnson wrote in the Facebook post. "I have not made any allegations against the City of Elba or its election officials. The motion on Monday was a request to delay the canvassing of votes by the Elba City Council. I have in no way indicated any wrongdoing by our city," Tim Johnson confirmed in a Facebook post.

The story was later amended by the news source, as requested by Johnson.

Bane said the city is committed to free and fair elec-

HOMECOMING TRADITIONS!

From nighttime yard rolling to daily 'dress up' themes, the students of Elba City Schools have been participating this week in several Homecoming traditions. The yard rollings with toilet paper began Monday night of this week, leaving many yards looking like the one above.

During the days at school, students and faculty dressed up following theme days. Tuesday's theme was "Lions Make a Good Snack! Dress as your favorite food, and junior Liza Rodriguez (right) chose to dress as a strawberry for the day!

In regards to Hurricane Sally damages

Coffee County added to list approved for federal disaster declaration

Alabama Governor Kay Ivey's office announced late last week that President Trump's September 20 disaster declaration for Alabama had been amended to provide FEMA Public Assistance (PA) to Barbour, Butler, Clarke, Coffee, Covington, Crenshaw, Geneva, Houston and Pike counties, as well as the Poarch Band of Creek Indians.

A total of 13 counties and the Poarch Band of Creek Indians are now eligible to apply to FEMA for assistance. Four counties - Baldwin, Conecuh, Escambia and Mobile - had previously been declared eligible for PA.

"As Alabama continues to recover following the devastating impacts from Hurricane Sally, I am pleased to continue working with FEMA to provide the necessary assistance to our citizens," Governor Ivey said. "I encourage Alabamians in these 13 counties to take advantage of this relief and again thank President Trump and his Administration for their continued support and partnership."

Public Assistance is FEMA's largest disaster

grant program. Eligible state, county and local governments, as well as certain private nonprofits, may be reimbursed for no less than 75 percent of disaster-related expenses. Eligible expenses may include debris removal, emergency protective measures and the repair or restoration of public facilities such as roads, bridges, water control facilities, buildings, equipment, public utilities, parks and recreational facilities.

Federal funding is also available on a cost-sharing basis for hazard mitigation measures statewide.

Coffee County Schools continue to monitor COVID-19 cases closely

Coffee County Schools Superintendent Kevin Killingsworth reported last Wednesday, Oct. 14, that Coffee County Schools had nine additional confirmed cases and one presumed positive case of COVID-19 within the system since his report the week prior.

"The cases are on the campuses of Zion Chapel High School, New Brockton High School, Kinston High School and the Central Office," Killingsworth said. "The students, teachers, and parents have been notified by the school nurse and are currently following recommended protocols."

In relation to the weekly report from Coffee County Schools, James Brown, Coffee County EMA director, said COVID cases were on an upward trend in the community at-large. He said while not welcomed, an increase at the schools was somewhat expected and had been properly responded to by school officials.

"Coffee County Schools continue to follow all procedures and the latest school guidance sent from ADPH including the updates to the 'back to school toolkit' issued today," Brown said last Wednesday. "As always, the safety of all our students, faculty and their families remains our top priority."

Superintendent Killingsworth added that the system's school nurses, administration, and staff members are continuing to stay abreast of the newest recommendations and guidelines. He said he would again like to thank the students, parents, and faculty for their continued patience, support and understanding of this ever-changing situation.

"COVID-19 is not over," Brown said. "Please continue to wear your masks and maintain social distance in all situations."

Marching Band Festival set for Saturday, Oct. 24, in Elba

Despite early concerns for no marching band festivals this year due to COVID-19, the Elba High School Marching Tiger Band will be able to host a modified Pea River Marching Band Classic this Saturday, Oct. 24, at Tiger Stadium in Elba.

"This is a modified festival this year due to COVID-19 hardships and restrictions," said Elba's director of bands Shaun Hammonds. "However, we are looking forward to hosting the event and giving all the participating band kids this opportunity."

Generally, the Pea River Marching Band Classic is a full-on marching contest with Best in Class competitions, but this year, the event has been modified to a festival, which allows judges to give each band individual ratings but no competition between the bands for each class.

Hammonds said there are eight high school bands set to perform in Elba on Saturday, including the hometown Elba Marching Tiger Band. There also will be an exhibition performance by the Ram Corp from the University of Mobile [this performance is set for 5-5:45 p.m.].

"Bands big and small from Alabama and Florida will be performing," Hammonds said. "There is plenty of seating and room in the stands as well as along our hill for social distancing. It should be a great day for bands right here in Elba, Alabama!"

Also, on site Saturday will be vendors and full

BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

"Hate is too great a burden to bear. It injures the hater more than it injures the hated." — Coretta Scott King

Our desire for sweets seems to ebb with age. Last Wednesday was Dessert Day and it triggered some thoughts from 'back when.' During our army days all those years ago, our motto at the mess hall was "Life is short. Eat dessert first." And truly the first thing we ate was the dessert! That of course got us lots of jabs, but our logic was that we didn't want to get full without eating the sweets of the day. Alas, even though sweets are still on our menu, now they don't take priority and we tend to favor the 'less sweet' desserts.

Late in the night last weekend our phone started binging like crazy. First, we thought it was the alarm clock but as we got completely awake realized the phone was sounding off. It turned out to be an Amber Alert for two missing children from Mississippi. The car involved reportedly had a Mobile County, Alabama tag, thus the alert to Alabama folks. Having no idea what the two boys looked like, our brain still pondered how we could help them. Now here we were snug in bed, the middle of the night and awake for over an hour fretting about how we were going to get those Mississippi boys, that we had no idea how they looked, back where they belonged, etc. Finally, our mental searching for them was called off and sleep returned. Monday all ended well when the Amber Alert was cancelled after the two were found, still in Mississippi.

We just saw an e-mail noting the top ten states with the fastest dropping unemployment numbers and the top ten slowest dropping unemployment numbers. Alabama was not in either group, which means our state is in about the middle. Our thoughts are that with a slower rebound, Alabama is improving on more solid ground and thus less likely to relapse (we hope). Of course, if COVID-19 erupts with a vengeance this winter, who knows what will happen to any economy.

In case you haven't heard, Americans have an election right around the corner — the first Tuesday in November. Number 1 on the ballot is of course the presidential race. The two main contenders are of course incumbent (Republican) Donald Trump and (Democrat) Joe Biden. It shouldn't be hard for any of us to pick a candidate, these two main characters are as different as any two people could ever be. Yet there are more folks out there who are still undecided that we would have expected. Digging deeper into their reasons, we find it is a matter of not liking some of Trump's personal actions but at the same time not liking some of Biden's ideas of how things should be done. Four years ago many of these votes went to third party candidates (or voters just didn't vote). This year many of the undecided say they intend to make a decision before election day. Which way? Only history will know that answer.

There is absolutely no need to anguish over the potential outcome of this election. History has many examples of folks predicting the sky will fall if ... is elected, but it doesn't happen. Our country, and our citizens are strong enough to manage the negatives whichever candidate sleeps in the White House for the next four years.

Cuzin Lou Lou's Tales from Yonder
Editor's Note: Cuzin Lou Lou's comments are best delivered using your biggest Southern drawl, lol!

Cuzin Lou Lou may be a girl, but she still enjoys watching sports! There even was a time when she was a pretty decent tennis player — those days, however, are several years and pounds ago!

Last weekend, Lou Lou was in quite a funk over her favorite fall sporting teams. From football to baseball, it just wasn't the best of weekends for Lou Lou. There were a couple of ups, but more downs.

Fortunately, Sister came to the rescue and kept Lou Lou from sitting around and stewing in her feelings the entire weekend.

Friday night, Lou Lou traveled to watch her favorite team from Yonder play a little football. While the team had its own mishaps (too many) that cost the players and coaches the win, Lou Lou found herself getting quite verbal with the fellas running around in the striped suits.

Lou Lou tries keep quiet most times, but when the down judge kept proving he had no idea what the rules of the game were...well, let's just say Lou Lou got a little upset. At one point, she caught herself yelling at the big fella saying she might be a girl but she knew more about what was going on out there than he did!

It was at this point that Sister grabbed Lou Lou and told her to sit down and hush it.

Sister was absolutely correct in doing that, but Lou Lou cannot stand watching a game where it seems the officials are the least knowledgeable ones in the stadium. They should know the rules of the game better than anyone.

There are times when officials make real-time mistakes, and that is understandable because it is a fast-paced sport. However, when those guys clearly don't even know the rules of the game...well, there is a problem.

Lou Lou can only hope the state organization that oversees it all will eventually get a handle on poor officiating that seems to be running rapid in high school sports; otherwise, a few bad apples are going to ruin the fun for all!

The next morning, Lou Lou was still feeling sore about the previous night's game. She was moping around the house.

This is when Sister stepped up and kicked a game winner! She loaded Lou Lou in the car and took her to get one of her favorite fall-time treats — a corn-dog [well, actually two corn-dogs] from the infamous Corn Dog Man!

Two dogs on a stick with both mustard and ketchup later, and Lou Lou's frown was turned upside down!

Picking on Sister is one of the things Cuzin loves most in life, but she also gives credit where credit is due! Sister was the champ last weekend because she knew what Lou Lou needed, and it worked beautifully!

Until next time...God Bless, Keep Smiling, and if you can — go get a corn-dog (or two) from the Corn Dog Man!!

Good Relief in Expressing Feelings

Too often, we think of grief as a negative thing. It's more accurate to say grief is a positive and healthy way to process negative things. When you lose a loved one, it can have a disruptive impact on your emotional and mental health, leaving you feeling unmotivated. Keeping those negative feelings bottled up will only make the problem worse. The grieving process is how that negativity can be properly channeled, articulated, and dealt with - paving the way for healing.

For this reason, the worst thing you can do during the grieving process is try to stifle your emotions or bottle your feelings. Attempting to "keep it to yourself" means those negative feelings churn and rage inside you, which can have a corrosive impact on your well-being.

It's okay if there are days or even seasons when you don't want to talk about the way you're feeling - but ultimately, grief is something that needs to be processed out loud, whether that means talking with a close friend, a therapist, or the members of a grief support group.

Additionally, remember that grief can have different stages - and all of them can be good. Depression, denial, and anger can all be part of the grief journey. None of these emotions are particularly fun, but they can be helpful. Each one represents your mind trying to work out the sensation of loss.

Grieving is always tough, but it can also be productive - ultimately moving you into a healthier headspace. As you go through the good but hard process of grieving, remember to show yourself some patience and some grace.

by Dwight Johnson, Lead Pastor
Elba First Assembly of God

Psalm Twenty Three has been a much loved part of scripture for many generations. The inspired words of David the shepherd, written about the Lord our shepherd, have brought great comfort and reassurance to many. Let's look briefly at some of its verses (NKJV).

Verse one: "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want." We usually focus here on the second half of the verse. It is comforting to know that we "shall not want." But, let's back up a little. We first should take an honest look at our lives and ask: "Who is really my shepherd?" In other words, who are we really following? Are we following current fads, the drama on social media, politicians, or people? People and things will certainly influence and interest us, but they make for bad shepherds. They may lead us in a direction that diverges from the path of the Lord. We must always be careful to follow him. When we do, we can then have the peace of knowing that we "shall not want."

Verse two: "He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters." Here again, we sometimes get the cart before the horse. The images of green pastures are peaceful and alluring; they would be a welcome destination. But first: Are we actually lying down in them? Honestly, I think about them, but don't take enough time for them. I can't lie down if I'm running around, here and there, doing this and that. This is why I am so thankful that the Lord "makes me" rest in these peaceful places. These green pastures may not be a geographical location. Usually, they are a spiritual place. Some may remember these words to a classic hymn: "There is a place of quiet rest, near to the heart of God." Beautiful words. Beautiful truth. A beautiful place.

What about the "still waters"? Most of us have been to The Gulf of Mexico many times. It's breathtakingly beautiful. I've crossed the Atlantic Ocean, and watched teeming wildlife from the banks of the Luangwa River in Zambia. However, none of those are my favorite. When I was fourteen, my parents moved us to the country. It didn't take long at all for my brother and me to start exploring the woods. Far back from the house, we found a quiet stream that had, through probably hundreds of years, eroded the land around it, creating a hidden place for itself. We loved to go there. The water was not loud or rushing. Very few even knew of its existence. It was, however, a quiet refuge, where even a teenage boy who knew little of troubles or care could go, reset, and be restored. God's "still waters" are like the "green pastures." Though unseen, they are very real. I can't go back to the hidden stream now. My parents are deceased, and the land was sold long ago. But, you and I can go at any time to this unseen refuge. Don't know where it is? The Great Shepherd is waiting to lead you to it and the green pastures.

 There's A Reason

My husband and I were excited to have a second child. The time seemed right in every way. I was confident when I took a pregnancy test, already feeling a change in my body. Positive! I quickly called my husband. We soon told everybody in our family and at work.

I was pregnant for two months before having emergency surgery. Suddenly I had to explain to my 3-year-old daughter that her little brother or sister was not going to be with us. I had to tell my family and co-workers.

It's been 19 years since we lost our little one, and in that time my husband and I gained two beautiful children. But we still don't know why God allowed us such sorrow. Maybe it's not the season to know. Maybe we'll never know. Regardless, we can rest peacefully in the knowledge that the Lord, the only one who needs to know, knows. — P.M.

USDA announces Oct. 30th is deadline to submit wildfire, and hurricane disaster assistance applications

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) has announced that Friday, Oct. 30, 2020, as the deadline to submit applications for the Wildfire and Hurricane Indemnity Program - Plus (WHIP+) for 2018 and 2019 losses.

"The physical and financial loss experienced by farmers and ranchers impacted by natural disaster events in 2018 and 2019 was widespread and catastrophic," said Richard Fordyce, Administrator of USDA's Farm Service Agency (FSA). "Fortunately, in addition to our already extensive suite of disaster assistance programs for crop and livestock producers, we were able to provide additional support through WHIP+."

WHIP+ compensates producers for losses due to hurricanes, floods, snowstorms, tornadoes, typhoons, volcanic activity, drought, excessive moisture, and wildfires occurring in calendar years 2018 and 2019. Drought and excessive moisture were added as eligible losses for the program in March 2020.

FSA will launch a new tool on the farmers.gov WHIP+ webpage to help producers understand eligibility for the program and whether they had possible losses in 2018 and 2019. The tool will also allow producers an opportunity to provide information for FSA staff to reach out to them.

FSA will announce soon the details for producers who experienced quality loss from 2018 and 2019 natural disaster events authorized in appropriations legislation. There will be a separate sign-up period for producers reporting quality loss.

For more information or application assistance, visit farmers.gov WHIP+ webpage, or contact your local USDA Service Center. To locate your local FSA office, visit farmers.gov/service-center-locator.

Our grandson Lawson needed a little help with a history assignment one day last week and after reading a chapter and answering a list of questions asked his ole Granddaddy to check over it. I really didn't care much about reading the chapter, but since it was only a couple of paragraphs I agreed, and even made a few changes to a couple of answers. Two days later he told me he made a 76 on the assignment, and hasn't asked me for help again. Oh well, my mind is crowded with 57 more years of history than his and it does get a little jumbled at times.

For what it is worth....

 While they are still mathematically alive in the hunt for a 2A playoff berth, the Elba Tigers for all practical purposes saw their post-season hopes vanish last week with a disappointing 45-32 region loss to Ariton. The math shows that an Elba win over Houston County and a Cottonwood win over Ariton would give the Tigers the #3 seed in the region, while an Elba win over Houston County coupled with a Cottonwood win over Ariton and a Zion Chapel win over Geneva County would make it a three-way tie for the final two sports. I guess it is true that anything can happen in high school sports, but it is highly unlikely either winless Zion Chapel or one-win Cottonwood has much of a chance to pull off upsets, and that means the Tigers could miss the playoffs for the first time in 14 years.

The loss to Ariton was simply more of the same for the Tigers as the offense put plenty of points on the scoreboard and the defense got gashed over and over, and has now allowed a total of 93 points in its last two crucial region games. The offense didn't click on all cylinders at all times and was stopped a couple of times in key situations, but did put 32 points on the scoreboard and did move the ball up and down the field behind the determined efforts of Jacques Prince and Collin Harrison. The defense was caught out of position numerous times that led to easy Ariton scores, and once again it appeared the defense was confused and unsure what to do even after the snap. I'm sure there was a plan, but once again it didn't work out and the result was a high-scoring region loss.

 It was another week to forget for three of the four area teams as only the Brantley Bulldogs were able to claim a win. Here's a quick look back at the week that was....

 The Brantley Bulldogs made it look easy once again in rolling to a 54-0 region win over winless Red Level. The Bulldogs never had to break a sweat on the cool fall night to remain atop the region standings and after eight games have now outscored their victims 427-26. Wow!

 Kinston was expected to have an easy time against winless Pleasant Home, but someone forgot to tell the Eagles as they tossed a 7-0 shutout against the Bulldogs. Kinston has struggled through a very disappointing season, but plays with pride and never backs down.

 Zion Chapel was looking for hang up a big 'W' on its side of the ledger last week when the Rebels took the field against winless Cottonwood, but it was the Rebels that remained winless as Cottonwood lit up the scoreboard in a 44-21 region win. Zion Chapel is down, but far from being out for the count.

 New Brockton fell behind 36-0 in the first quarter and never challenged in a lopsided 50-15 region loss to Providence Christian. The Gamecocks saw their losing streak reach five games with the loss, and in the streak has allowed an average of over 49 points per game. Ouch!

 It was another wild week across the wiregrass area with a number of upsets and surprising scores posted. Here are just a few.... Andalusia logged its fourth straight win and its third straight shutout with a big 27-0 region win over Greenville * Wicksburg rallied from a 19-point fourth quarter deficit to ease past Houston Academy 37-32 * Dothan continued its struggles in the 7A ranks with a 49-13 loss to Central, of Phenix City * Daleville remained winless with a 48-14 loss to AHSAA newcomer Northside Methodist * Charles Henderson claimed its first win of the season with a surprising 24-19 region win over Carroll of Ozark * Eufaula jumped out to a 42-0 halftime lead and coasted in with an easy 42-0 win over Russell County * Abbeville rolled up over 500 yards in total offense for the second straight week in a lopsided 48-0 region win over outclassed Houston County * Goshen remained winless in the 3A ranks with a 42-13 loss to previously winless Beulah * Pike County improved its playoff seeding with a solid 43-7 road win over Childersburg * Samson kept its playoff hopes alive with an impressive 35-20 region win over Georgiana * G.W. Long remained undefeated with a big 41-7 region win over Geneva County * and, McKenzie moved into second place in the region standings with a surprising 51-38 region win over previously unbeaten Florala.

 Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator dropped by over the weekend and wanted to make sure everyone knew the Elba Tigers still had a shot at making the playoffs and even had a chance to finish third in the region, with a little help of course. He admitted the odds weren't really good, but reminded me that a football is shaped funny and can take some crazy bounces. The local guesspert hit on  of  picks last week and left this week's fearless forecast. Here goes....

ELBA VS. HOUSTON COUNTY

The Pea River felines lost a little more fur last week on a trip up river and this week will be back at home looking to give the alumni something to cheer about as they celebrate homecoming. The kitties from over near the state line haven't won many catfights this season, but have showed up for them all and have never backed down. The fur may be flying in this one.

ELBA 30 HOUSTON COUNTY 16

BRANTLEY VS. FLORALA

The bulldogs from up across the creek are one win away from another region title and will make the trip down near the state line looking to stage a party. While they may run into a litter of kitties that hang out by the lake, the guess here is the 'dogs will make it look easy and leave town still singing and dancing.

BRANTLEY 54 FLORALA 14

ZION CHAPEL AT GENEVA COUNTY

The troops from up at Fort Jack will make the long march down across the county line still in search of win #1. They will have their muskets loaded just in case they run into a pack of dogs that hang out near the highway, but may not have enough ammunition to call it a successful hunt. This one could get bad.

GENEVA COUNTY 52 ZION CHAPEL 7

KINSTON VS. SAMSON

The bulldogs from down near the county line would like nothing better than to put a damper on the kitties planned trip to the post-season party. While the dogs didn't do much barking last week after a long walk to the woods of Covington County, this week may be a little more fun. In a four quarter fight....

have to play like it is their last game of their career, because it may be," added Sieving. "Houston County is a lot like Ariton in the formations they line up in on offense and what they like to do. So, it is obvious that our defense has to play at a much higher level and try to take control of the game. Over on defense they are sound and have two really solid linebackers that run to the football, and they have been successful at times on

Region battles continue for area teams

The high school football season is fast drawing to a close for teams in the area, and while this week will see region wars continue, many teams will be playing simply for pride with no hope for advancement to the playoffs.

Following is a preview of this week's area games:

Houston Academy at New Brockton

The New Brockton Gamecocks will be looking to get back in the win column this week when they host the Houston Academy Raiders, in the region finale.

Houston Academy leads the all-time series 14-6, has won the last ten meetings and won the last meeting 44-20 back in 2009.

The Gamecocks have struggled to a 1-6 record this season and will enter the game mired in a 5-game losing streak, as they have averaged 18.5 points per game and allowed 41.1 points per game.

The Raiders have also struggled throughout the season to log wins, and will enter the game with a 2-6 record. They have posted wins over 1A Kinston 16-0 and winless Daleville 45-0, while losing to Bayside 44-3, Opp 35-0, Slocomb 48-0, Florala 40-35, Providence Christian 37-14 and Wicksburg 37-32.

Zion Chapel at Geneva County

The Zion Chapel Rebels will be looking to pull off a major upset and end a season filled with frustrations Friday night when they travel to Hartford to tangle with the Geneva County Bulldogs.

Geneva County holds a 2-0 all-time series edge and posted a 19-8 win in the last meeting back in 2007.

The Rebels have scored one touchdown or less in five games this season, but scored 21 points last week in a loss to Cottonwood, and began to show signs of life on the offensive side of the ball.

The Bulldogs will bring a 6-2 record into the region clash, with wins over Wicksburg 19-15, Cottonwood 39-12, Ariton 54-41, Abbeville 42-30, Geneva 22-6 and Houston County 21-14, while losing to Elba 50-22 and G.W. Long 41-7.

Samson at Kinston

The Kinston Bulldogs will be looking to play spoiler in the region on Friday night when they host the Samson Tigers, in their season finale.

HOUSTON ACADEMY AT NEW BROCKTON

The roosters from over near the bypass are looking kind of skinny these days after going five weeks without a solid meal, and may be even hungrier if the defense can't keep a gang of raiders out away from the coop. There is no doubt the roosters will put up a fight, but the guess here is they will still be looking for a good meal after the game is over.

In key region clash
Elba Tigers outscored by Ariton 45-32

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

The Elba Tigers saw their journey to the playoffs hit a dead end Friday night with a disappointing 45-32 region loss to the Ariton Purple Cats, in Ariton.

Elba jumped ahead early as the Tigers received the opening kickoff and went 68 yards in five plays to get on the scoreboard. A 44-yard pass from Jacquez Prince to Peyton McCart was a key play in the early scoring drive, while the score came on a 5-yard run by Prince. Collin Harrison ran in the two-point conversion, and with 9:32 left in the first quarter the Tigers were on top 8-0.

Ariton had an immediate answer for the Elba score as the Purple Cats went 63 yards in five plays on their initial possession to also reach the endzone. Ian Senn completed 3 of 4 passes for 53 yards to lead the 'Cats down the field, and connected with Landon Thrash from 10 yards out for the Ariton touchdown. A two-point run failed, but with 8:13 left in the quarter the Tigers lead was down to 8-6.

Ariton began its next possession near midfield after a 14-yard Elba punt and this time went 56 yards in seven plays to take the lead. Senn scored the Purple Cat touchdown when he burst through a huge hole in the middle of the Elba defense and raced untouched 16 yards for the score, and the freshman quarterback also ran in the two-point conversion as Ariton moved in front 14-8 with 3:22 left in the quarter.

Elba began its ensuing possession at its own 41-yardline and regained the lead as the Tigers marched 59 yards in six running plays to get back into the endzone. Collin Harrison rushed for 54 yards on five carries and scored the Tiger touchdown on an 11-yard dash, and Harrison also ran in the two-point conversion as Elba went back on top 16-14 with 25-seconds remaining in the opening quarter.

The Tigers lead didn't last for long; however, as Ariton took the ensuing kickoff and went 59 yards in only four plays to go back on top. Ian Senn again jumped through a hole in the middle of the Elba defense and this time raced untouched 45 yards for the Purple Cat touchdown, and while a two-point run failed to produce points, Ariton was back on top 20-16 with 10:55 left in the second quarter.

Elba was forced to punt on its next series, but got the ball back on an Ariton punt at its own 35-yardline and headed back toward the Purple Cat endzone. The Tigers reached a first down at the Ariton 43 behind the running of Collin Harrison and the passing of Jacquez Prince, and appeared to regain the lead when Prince turned the corner on a 43-yard run. A penalty flag nullified the long scoring run; however, and on the next play the Tigers turned the ball over on a mishandled snap to set Ariton up at the Elba 29-yardline.

The Purple Cats took advantage of the short field as they covered the 29 yards to the endzone in five plays, and cashed in the turnover on the final play of the half when Senn bulled over from one yard out. The extra-point attempt failed, but at the half Ariton went in with a 26-16 lead.

Ariton received the second half kickoff and wasted little time increasing its lead as the Purple Cats went 70 yards in six running plays to get back into the endzone.

Elba Tiger Peyton McCart (20) seals the edge as Tiger teammate Jacquez Prince (8) leads the way for Collin Harrison (1) to head downfield for a big gain in last week's 45-32 loss to Ariton. Harrison gained 131 yards on 21 carries and scored two touchdowns in the region loss.

Ian Senn scored his fourth touchdown of the night when he turned the corner and scampered 39 yards for the score, and Senn also added the extra-point to out the 'Cats on top 33-16 with 9:26 left in the third quarter.

Elba saw a promising drive stopped at the Ariton 25-yardline on its ensuing possession, but got a much needed break only four plays later when JT Coleman broke through to block an Ariton punt to put the Tigers back in business at the Purple Cat 21.

It took the Tigers six plays to cover the 21 yards to the endzone, with the score coming on a 1-yard run by Collin Harrison. Harrison also ran in the two-point conversion, and with 2:12 left in the quarter Elba was within 33-24.

Ariton began its ensuing possession at its own 26-yardline and stuck a dagger in the Tigers comeback hopes as the 'Cats marched 74 yards in nine plays to extend their lead. A 31-yard dash by Ian Senn was a key play in the long scoring drive, while Landon Thrash scored the Purple Cat touchdown when on fourth down and seven he took a handoff on a reverse and rambled untouched 10 yards into the endzone. A two-point run was unsuccessful, but with 9:01 left in the fourth quarter the Purple Cats were in charge with a 39-24 lead. Ariton put the ball in play at the Elba 38-yardline after a pass interception and needed only two plays to get back into the endzone. Jordan Smith gained 37 yards on first down and scored from a yard out on the next play for the Purple Cat touchdown, and while the extra-point attempt fell short, Ariton was in complete command with a 45-24 lead with 4:32 left on the clock.

Elba was determined to get back into the endzone despite the deficit and did just that as the Tigers took the ensuing kickoff and went 46 yards in seven plays to get back across the goal line. Jacquez Prince completed 3 of 6 passes for 39 yards and rushed for 16 yards on one carry to lead the Tigers down the field, with the Tiger touchdown coming on a 12-yard pass to Chrystyle Caldwell. Prince passed to Collin Harrison for the two-point conversion, and with 2:21 still left on the clock Elba was within 45-32.

Ariton recovered an on-sides kick on the ensuing kickoff and ended the Tigers playoff hopes as the 'Cats ran out the clock to hand the Tigers the 45-32 region loss.

Collin Harrison rushed for 131 yards and 2 touchdowns on 21 carries to lead the Elba offense, while Jacquez Prince added 55 yards and one td rushing and completed 7 of 15 passes for 103 yards and one td. Peyton McCart caught two passes for 70 yards and Chrystyle Caldwell had two catches for 19 yards and one td.

Chrystyle Caldwell had 7 tackles and one quarterback sack to lead the Tiger defense, while John Martin Wilson also had 7 stops.

Freshman Ian Senn rushed for 179 yards and 4 touchdowns on 14 carries and completed 5 of 12 passes for 75 yards and one td to spark Ariton, while sophomore Jordan Smith rushed for 161 yards and one td on 21 carries.

The New Brockton Gamecocks continued to take their lumps on the gridiron last week with a 50-15 region loss to the Providence Christian Eagles, in Dothan.

Providence Christian came out ready to play in the 'must win' contest for both region rivals and scored five touchdowns in the opening quarter to take a commanding 36-0 lead after just one quarter of play.

The Eagles first quarter touchdowns came on runs of 3-yards, 20-yards and 55-yards by Gus Goldsborough, a 32-yard run by Jake Smith and a 36-yard pass from Smith to Grant Weatherford.

Smith hooked up with Abe Chancellor with a 29-yard touchdown toss in the second quarter to push the Eagles lead to 43-0. Kinston falls 7-0 to Pleasant Home in defensive battle

Statistics by Dickey Adcock

The Kinston Bulldogs and Pleasant Home Eagles slugged it out for all four quarters on Friday night in a region battle at Eagle Stadium, and when the final horn sounded to end the contest it was Pleasant Home that left the field with a 7-0 win.

The Kinston defense turned back two Pleasant Home scoring threats in the first half to keep the Eagles off the scoreboard, but the Bulldogs also failed to put any points on the board as they saw a pair of potential scoring drives end at the Eagles 18 and 16 yardline, and at the half the score was still knotted at 0-0.

Pleasant Home received the second half kick and went 67 yards in 10 plays to finally get on the scoreboard, with the score coming on a 2-yard run by Ladarius Purifoy. Frank Gafford kicked the extra-point, and with 5:24 left in the third quarter the Eagles were on top 7-0.

Kinston failed to move the chains on all three of its second half possessions, as the Bulldogs dropped the 7-0 region decision.

Addison Hudson rushed for 96 yards on 24 carries to lead the Kinston running attack, while Konner Walker added 17 yards on three totes.

Zion Chapel's Levi Mills (2) fights for extra yards in last week's region loss to the Cottonwood Bears. The Rebels will travel to Hartford this Friday night to take on the Geneva County Bulldogs.

The Zion Chapel Rebels battled on even terms with the Cottonwood Bears for the first two quarters Friday night, but the Bears exploded for three third quarter touchdowns to take command and the Rebels never caught up in a 44-21 loss, at Bates Memorial Stadium, in Enterprise.

Cottonwood scored first in the game to take an early 6-0 lead, but the Rebels rallied to go on top 7-6 midway through the second quarter and were tied at 14-14 after reaching the endzone with only 39-seconds left in the half.

Cottonwood scored with 21-seconds left in the half to carry a 22-14 lead in at halftime, and then scored three touchdowns in the third quarter to open up a 44-14 lead and easily held on as the Bears notched their first win of the season.

JD Finger scored on a 1-yard run, Zay Adair added a 23-yard scoring dash and Brockston Bragg scored on a 3-yard run to pace the Rebel offense.

Mekhi Anglin rushed for 186 yards on 15 carries and scored on runs of 79, 16, 52 and 12 yards to spark the Cottonwood offensive attack, while Austin McCardle tossed a 66-yard touchdown pass to Raymond Bryant and Brody Morris added a 41-yard scoring run to round out the Bears scoring.

Kinston's Addison Hudson (15) continued to be the offensive workhorse for the Bulldogs last week as he gained 96 yards on 24 carries in the game. The 2-6 Bulldogs will host Samson Friday night in Kinston for the final game of the season as the originally scheduled Oct. 30th clash with Barbour County will be forfeited by Barbour County, which is not participating in sports this year due to COVID-19.

Alabama completes 2020 Census with 99.9 percent household response, governor says

Governor Kay Ivey — alongside the Alabama Department of Economic and Community Affairs (ADECA) and Alabama Counts! — today announced final participation results of Census 2020 for the state of Alabama. The census officially came to a close nationwide on Thursday, Oct. 15. Alabama finished with an overall household response rate of 99.9%, on par with 48 other U.S. states. Of this total, 63.5% were self-responding Alabamians — an improvement from the 62.5% self-response rate recorded in 2010. Across the state, 47 counties exceeded their 2010 self-response rate.

In addition to self-response rates recorded by internet, phone or mail, the remaining percentage of responses was gathered by door-to-door Census takers for households who did not participate in self-response.

Governor Ivey has led census efforts in alignment with

Keep health and safety foremost for Halloween festivities

Protecting families, friends and communities from contracting and spreading the novel coronavirus COVID-19 is a major concern for Alabama families in 2020.

Persons who have COVID-19 or who have been exposed to someone with the virus should not participate in in-person Halloween activities. Anyone exposed to COVID-19 within the past 14 days or who is showing symptoms should remain at home. Of course, people at increased risk of severe illness from COVID-19 should also stay home.

Children can enjoy limited trick-or-treating provided parents assess the risks of each activity, take precautions and carefully supervise. Adults need to emphasize the importance of consistent hand hygiene, proper mask wearing and social distancing where people can remain 6 feet apart or more. Avoiding large, crowded groups is important.

Weigh the risks and consider alternative ways to celebrate. The main indicator for limiting the risk of COVID-19 spread in the community is the number of days a county has a downward trend of new cases. Each county's current risk level can be found on the ADPH COVID-19 Risk Indicator Dashboard.

Halloween activities are grouped according to the following risk levels:

Higher Risk

- Traditional door-to-door trick-or-treating with shared candy bowls
- Trunk-or-treating events
- Crowded indoor events such as haunted houses and costume contests

Moderate Risk

- No-touch trick-or-treating (such as candy chutes)
- Goodie bags placed outside for pickup

Lower Risk

- Traditional injury prevention and health precautions for Halloween trick-or-treating hold true in 2020. As always, responsible adult supervision is key with trick-or-treating. Safety measures to take beforehand, during and after trick-or-treating include the following:
- Be sure costumes, wigs and accessories are flame-resistant.
- Wear protective face coverings made up of two or more layers of breathable fabric instead of a costume mask. Face coverings can be decorated with themes, too.
- Add reflective tape to costumes.
- Do not wear decorative contact lenses; they can cause eye injuries.
- Be careful to prevent accidental cuts when carving pumpkins.
- Make sure walking areas and stairs are well-lit and free of obstacles.
- Never walk near lit candles or luminaries and avoid distraction from electronic devices.
- Keep candle-lit jack-o'-lanterns away from ADECA and Alabama Counts! since April 2019 to ensure participation numbers statewide reflected a proper Alabama representation. At stake has continued to be adequate federal representation, continued community funding and on-going economic development opportunities moving forward.

“Over the past several months, Alabamians have come together during these challenging times to complete their 2020 Census, heeding our messages about how vital this count would be to shaping the future of our state,” Governor Ivey said. “We're hopeful that the spirit of our citizens in this effort will translate into good news for Alabama down the road.”

The response rate includes only the percentage of households accounted for, not the number of people living in those households. The U.S. Census Bureau will release the total statewide population figures for the Alabama and all other states in the coming months, currently scheduled for Dec. 31. These figures will determine congressional reapportionment.

Elba High Alumni Association to host golf tourney fundraiser on Saturday

The Elba High School Alumni Association's annual 4-person scramble golf tournament set for Saturday, Oct. 24, is open to anyone to play!

“This is a fundraiser for the Alumni Association, but one does not have to be an alum of Elba City Schools to play in the tournament,” said Linda Hodge, president of the Elba High School Alumni Association. “If you are interested in signing up to play in Saturday's tournament, please fill out the attached form and bring it with you on the day of the event.”

The golf tournament fundraiser on Saturday will be a four-person scramble team event. Tee time will be 9 a.m. Saturday morning at the Elba Country Club.

The cost to play is $50 per person, and this includes 18 holes of golf, a golf cart, and lunch.

“Despite all the challenges of this year, it has been another terrific year for the Association,” Hodge said. Through membership dues and other fundraisers, such as this golf tournament, we are able to provide Elba High School students with monetary scholarships, as well as, meet other specific needs for the Elba City School System.”

Over five years now the alumni association has been able to provide 10 scholarships totaling $15,000 for Elba High School seniors — that's two scholarships per year at $1,500 each!

“Our main goal for the alumni association has and will continue to be assisting Elba High School and its students,” Hodge said. “Thank you for your help in allowing us to meet this goal!”

“Homeowners that want to participate and give out candy should have their porch lights on during this designated time,” Murdock said. “Those who don't want to participate can just leave their porch lights off as a sign to the

“Though this year has been challenging for everyone, Alabama Counts! is tremendously pleased that we fulfilled our goal of maximum participation among Alabama households in the 2020 Census,” said Kenneth Boswell, chairman of Alabama Counts and director of the Alabama Department of Economic and Community Affairs. “Alabama Counts! was a group effort of hundreds of people from organizations, governments and businesses throughout the state, and we thank them as well as the census workers for being key to the state reaching such a high participation level.”

Alabama counties reflecting the highest self-response rates were Shelby County at 77.8%, Madison County at 76.0% and Autauga County at 71.7%. Additionally, Macon County, which took home the title of Alabama Census Bowl Champion in September and $65,000 for its public-school system, finished at 52.5% for self-response.

The mayor said the Elba Chamber of Commerce formed a committee to seek input from the community to evaluate the event that normally is attended by over 4,000 people. The Chamber's committee had representatives from parents, businesses, city council, police officers, and medical professionals.

He said the recommendation of that committee was to allow outdoor trick-or-treating that can be coordinated by individual families.

“Everything has been really upended this year,” said Sandy Bynum, executive director of the Elba Chamber of Commerce. “And everyone is searching
